ROYAL ACADEMY OF ART

Many congratulations to Tarique Al-Shabazz who has had his artwork selected by the Royal Academy of Art as part of their A-Level Summer Exhibition online. Not only has he been selected but his work has also been used as the main promotional material. We also wish to congratulate Ollie Bradley-Baker whose video 'while the city sleeps' was shortlisted.

This is an amazing achievement for both students as nearly 1,280 aspiring artists in college or at Sixth Form submitted their work to an expert panel. The A-level Summer Exhibition Online is the only open-submission online exhibition for emerging artists in education in the UK. Anyone who is currently studying for their A-levels (or equivalent) and attends sixth form college or secondary school was able to enter.

To view the exhibition please visit <https://www.royalacademy.org.uk/exhibition/32>
